Pioneer Of Westbank Is Instantly Killed When Automobile Overturns

Stewart J. Hewlett Fatally Injured When Automobile Skids Around Corner Near Westbank—Police Warn Motorists To Drive Carefully On Ice-Covered Roads—Coroner Finds Inquest Not Necessary—Funeral Arrangements Not Completed

STEWART John Hewlett, 54 years of age, a pioneer resident of the Westbank district, was instantly killed about 10 a.m. Wednesday when his car skidded on the icy surface of the road and overturned, pinning him underneath the vehicle. The accident happened about one mile north of Westbank.

City police warned motorists to drive carefully on both city and provincial government roads. They pointed out that recent snows have made the highways dangerous for fast driving, and they emphasized the need for motorists to exercise the greatest caution.

Coroner T. F. McWilliams and Constable George Wyman were immediately dispatched to the scene, and Mr. Hewlett's car was towed to the coroner's office. According to reports, Mr. Hewlett was proceeding around a corner when the car suddenly skidded, crashing into a three-foot bank and overturned. He was unable to free himself and the roof of the car pinned him underneath the vehicle.

While every effort is being made to sand the roads as the result of the recent snow, there is only one sanding truck operating on the other side of the lake between Westbank and Peachland. An indication of the hazardous condition of the highway was given by police, who, while investigating the fatality, witnessed two more cars skid around the same corner where Mr. Hewlett met his death. Both cars were proceeding slowly, police stated, in emphasizing the need for motorists to drive carefully.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

Many Survivors
Mr. Hewlett was an old-time and respected member of the Westbank community and until recently operated a grocery store. Born in Dorchester, England, he is survived by his wife, in Westbank, and his mother, Mrs. M. A. Hewlett, of Okanagan Mission. In addition he is survived by two sons, Harold and Charlie, and two daughters, Mrs. R. Drought, and Miss Myrtle Hewlett and two grand-children, all of Westbank. Six brothers and four sisters also survive.

STREET NAMED AFTER MAYOR

In line with a previous policy of naming city streets after prominent local citizens, City Council Monday night agreed that "McKay Street" would be an appropriate name for a new city street.

The name was chosen in honor of C. A. McKay, former mayor of Kelowna. The new street will be located between Osprey and Wardlaw Avenue, and between Pendero and Richter Streets.

FEDERATION HOLDS NEW OIL HEAD TEA AND SALE

There was a large attendance at the Women's Federation of the First United Church annual sale of work and tea held on Saturday afternoon, November 3, which was held in the Church Hall.

Fall flowers, shrubs and berries were used effectively in the hall and for table decorations. Mrs. R. B. Staples headed the committee in charge of these arrangements.

Decorated booths were sponsored by the Merry Macs, Janet Coates, Business Girls, Sutherland Avenue, George McKenzie and Glen Avenue Circles. In these booths were a large and varied supply of articles displayed for sale.

Tea was served during the afternoon and arrangements were made by the Pendero Street Circle. Mrs. M. W. Lees and Mrs. C. McCarthy presided at the urns.

The Federation realized approximately $50.00 from the afternoon's sale and this money will be expended on church work by the organization.

BUILDING permits for the construction of 14 new homes in the city were taken out during the month of October as local building permit values continued to set an all-time high in the history of Kelowna. According to the report issued by the City office this week, building permit values during the month of October amounted to $48,685 to bring the total values for the ten-month period to $589,435, compared with only $315,385 for the corresponding period last year.

Permit values last month showed an increase of $23,300 over October, 1944, and a jump of $47,275 over October, 1943, when building values only amounted to $1,410. The total building permit values for the ten-month period far exceed those of any previous year, and are indicative of the steady growth of the city since 1941. Employees of the city building inspection department are still working overtime to keep up with the rush in business. So far this year a total of 312 permits have been issued by the local office, covering permits to build houses, garages or make alterations.

Remarkable Increase
A glance at the table below will show the remarkable increase during the last four years:

Police Report No Vandalism On Halloween

Thanks to the efforts of the local Kinsmen Club in holding "shell-out" parties in the city, no vandalism of any importance was reported to the local police on Halloween night.

One Kelowna resident telephoned the Courier last week and related that her fence had been damaged by youngsters, but other than overturned garbage cans and other minor pranks, police stated no expensive damage was done by the children. They commended the efforts of the Kinsmen in organizing parties in the evening which were chiefly responsible for keeping kiddies off the streets.

The Courier regrets, however, it is unable to publish a list of prize-winners in the various contests at the shell-out parties. However, the fact a complete list of winners was not kept. If such a list is obtained at a future date, the Courier will gladly list all winners.

City Plans To "Welcome Home" Veterans Latter Part Of November

Raise those flags—get out the bunting and set yourselves for a gala week—for Kelowna is preparing to stage the "Welcome Home" for veterans of this war!

Preliminary plans have been completed to stage the celebration in co-ordination with the opening drive for a Civic War Memorial in Kelowna, and the week-long "Welcome Home" will commence on November 29. In addition to various forms of entertainment planned by the Civic Memorial Committee, two huge dances, sponsored by the local Rehabilitation Committee, will be held at the Scout Hall and the Zenith Hall on Thursday evening, November 29, in honor of returned war veterans.

Judging from the interest and co-operation shown by individuals and city merchants, the "Welcome Home Week" should be a gala affair. The City Council and Mayor James Pettigrew have also promised full support and the streets will be gaily decorated with flags and bunting, while merchants have promised to do their utmost in the way of decorating windows and stores to show their appreciation of what the local boys did on the battle fronts of the world.

While it will be impossible to organize parades through the city streets, it is indicated that the local Sea Cadet band and the Kelowna Pipe band will play at various times during the week on the city streets.

It is planned to stage the "Welcome Home Week" on much the same lines as that held in Vancouver some time ago, although the weather no doubt will play a major

FRUIT MEN MOVE TO AID RETURNED MEN

Send Circulars To Various Locals To Ascertain Views and Get Recommendations

Circulars are being distributed to various locals of the British Columbia Fruit Growers' Association to ascertain their views and recommendations with regard to the rehabilitation of returned men and women in the fruit, vegetable and allied industries. The recommendations will be embodied in the next rehabilitation report to be brought before the next convention of the B.C.F.G.A., and suggestions are asked to be forwarded to Chairman A. Millar, Oliver, B.C., before Nov. 15.

Many Questions
The B.C.F.G.A. would like to learn the reaction of various locals to the following questions:

1. Special training of men selected on account of their possible suitability to fill the position of field service men, these men to be employed on the various packing units for field service, cold storage and other operations, with a view to providing 12 months' employment.
2. Should the industry through the B.C.F.G.A. sponsor the training of these men and women or should the matter be left entirely in the hands of individual packing houses?
3. What steps are being taken to assist the returned men and women back into orchard work? Is there any organization (local) where vacancies are registered, or through whom placements are offered?
4. How many growers can offer full season's work to a suitable man and how many can offer just casual work as and when available?
5. Will employers consider the desirability of giving the returned men a period of training before they are offered a position?
6. What other occupation can your district offer to help a man along when he is not required on the ranch?
7. What housing accommodation is available for single and married men respectively, is the house rent and what other assistance is given such as fuel, water, etc.? This is quite an important item where there is a family.
8. What undeveloped land with access to water is available in your district? Are there any improved lands or fully bearing orchards likely to come on the market? What is the approximate average price per acre of recent sales?
9. Do members of your local consider it would be of benefit to the industry and to the returned men if we can get a horticultural college established in the Valley for training men in general and specialized horticulture work?
10. Would it be to the benefit of the industry if men having recent experience in the horticultural industry as to their degree of qualification? Would this tend to increase efficiency as well as give ambition to the student and make his studying period well worth while?

BUSY SESSIONS ARE EXPECTED AT AIR PARLEY

Kelowna Delegates To Attend B.C. Aviation Council Meeting At Penticton

According to a tentative list of those attending, and the subject of discussion at the forthcoming sessions of the B.C. Aviation Council, which opened in Penticton this morning, the two-day conference will be a busy one. While some have not as yet registered, the committee in charge has submitted an important list of names of leading aviation authorities and others who will be present.

While complete details of the topics to be considered at the gathering have not yet been stated, it is known that there will be sub-committees on many phases of aviation as related to this province and the entire northwest.

It is expected that the outcome of these discussions will be a general acceleration of air travel and development of the B.C. and its adjacent territories, the committee reports.

One result that may eventuate from the gathering, state members of the Southern Okanagan Flying Club, which is sponsoring the meet, is a speed-up of air travel links between the Interior and Vancouver. At the same time some of the difficulties of the air travel industry will be ironed out. The presence of Ottawa officials, from the Department of Transport, as well as those from the same department's Vancouver office, will be of great assistance, and certainly should, club members indicate, result in a furtherance of plans for feeder routes from the Interior to the province.

Sub-committees at the conference will be discussing airports and airport planning; air regulations; charter and feeder service; private flying; and the place and purpose of flying clubs in the province.

Air Officials
The Penticton committee expects to have a delegation from the Department of Transport, Ottawa, will be in attendance. Also that W. S. Lawson, and Carter Guest, of the Vancouver office of the department, will be present.

Grant MacDonnell, head of Canadian Pacific Airlines, is listed, as a representative, as yet unnamed, of Trans-Canada Airlines, also a representative of the Air Line, Ltd., Sqn. Ldr. A. W. Carter, president of the Air Cadet League of Canada, is another delegate. It is expected that the official will take up matters pertaining to the re-organization of the Air Cadets.

Also expected to attend the meetings are the management of Coates Aircraft, Vancouver, and S. Sharp, head of British Columbia Airlines, Vancouver. Representatives of the Vancouver Board of Trade, and the City Councils of Vancouver, Victoria, Chilliwack, New Westminster, Kamloops, Vernon and Kelowna are expected.

City Plans To "Welcome Home" Veterans Latter Part Of November

The city had planned on holding a "Welcome Home Week" some time ago, but the war postponed at that time in view of the fact many of the local veterans were still overseas. It is now felt that the majority are now home, and the celebration will be in the form of saying "Thank You" for services rendered.

War Memorial Campaign
The celebration will also give added incentive to the start of the campaign for funds toward the Civic War Memorial. It is hoped a total of $100,000 will be raised within two weeks from the time the campaign opens.

The district War Memorial Committee has had a couple of meetings during the last week, and Bob Seath, campaign chairman, stated this week that teams and team captains have been appointed to canvass the city.

The next meeting of team captains will be held in the Board room of the B.C. Fruit & Veg. Assn., on Nov. 15, at 8 p.m., and a meeting of all canvassers will be held in the Junior High School on Nov. 22, at 8 o'clock. About 300 canvassers have been appointed to cover the city.

Officials of the drive stated they had received word from Ottawa this week informing the committee that donations from individuals can be made payable to the Civic War Memorial and these will be compiled as charitable donations, which would be exempt from income tax under the War Charities Act.

"Are We Pulling Our Weight?"

ALTHOUGH on Wednesday the Central Okanagan unit of the Victory Loan campaign had only 87.5 per cent of its minimum quota of $1,040,000, it was confidently stated by members of the local War Finance Committee that today, Thursday, would see the unit over the mark. This means that Thursday's reporting must account for $129,850. Local officials stated that they felt there was "enough in sight" to make this record day possible.

Although the local unit will reach its minimum quota today it will still be trailing far behind all other Okanagan units and British Columbia as a whole. On Wednesday the people of this area had invested $910,150 or 87.5 per cent of its minimum objective. This was far below the South Okanagan unit's figure of $1,319,700, or 109.9 per cent, and also below the North Okanagan figure of $1,124,000 or 102.1 per cent.

On the 14th reporting day—Tuesday's figure—the Central Okanagan unit placed well down the list of the 44 units in this province. It ranked 37th. Twenty-five of the units had already gone over the top. At that time the local unit recorded 79.38 per cent.

CITY COUNCIL TO LOOK INTO BLOCK NUMBERS

Would Like To See Postal Delivery Started In Kelowna—Work With Board of Trade

City Council are determined that no barriers will be placed in the way of the Kelowna Board of Trade in its efforts to get postal delivery service in the city.

At last Monday night's Council meeting a letter was received from E. W. Barton, secretary of the Board of Trade, stating that following a visit from G. H. Clark, District Director of Postal Services, Vancouver, it was indicated that the post office official would like to see the city renumber the streets.

Alderman W. B. Hughes-Games and Alderman C. D. Newby were appointed to co-operate with the Board of Trade to see what could be done in improving the numbering of houses.

It has been suggested that a new "block system" be instituted, whereby the numbering would start at "zero" on the lake front and continue eastward. In numbering the houses north and south, it was suggested that "zero" should start at the foot of Knox Mountain, and continue southward.

Alderman Hughes-Games thought the city should look into the matter, as the "zero" should start at the foot of Knox Mountain, and continue southward. Mayor James Pettigrew thought the new "block system" was a good suggestion, and said it would be very simple for visitors coming into the city.

It is hoped that the result of the appointment of the two Aldermen to assist the Board of Trade, that a full report will be made to the Council at its next meeting.

To Honor Dead Of Two Wars In Remembrance Day Service

All Stores And Government Offices To Remain Closed On Monday

Plans are completed for holding a special Remembrance Day service in Kelowna, Sunday, November 11, at 11 o'clock. The service will be held on city streets this coming Saturday, according to officials of the Canadian Legion, under whose auspices all arrangements are being made.

Weather permitting, the Remembrance Day service will be held in front of the Cenotaph in the City Park, commencing at 3 o'clock, and Ven. Archdeacon D. S. Catchpole, chaplain of the Canadian Legion, will conduct the service. In the event of bad weather, the service will be held in St. Michael and All Angels' Anglican Church.

All ex-servicemen and women, as well as local organizations, are urged to meet at the Canadian Legion Hall at 2:30 p.m., Sunday, for the parade, which will proceed down the main street, followed by the local Sea Cadet band as well as the Kelowna Pipe Band will head the parade, and all ex-servicemen are urged to wear uniforms as well as medals and ribbons.

Service at 3 p.m.
The service will open at the Cenotaph at 3 o'clock with the singing of "O Canada", followed by a prayer and two minutes silence. After singing of "O God, Our Help in Ages Past", a Bible reading will be given, followed by an address by Ven. Catchpole. The "Last Post" will be sounded by a trumpeter of the local band.

Following the singing of another hymn, the "Lord's Prayer" will be said, and this will be followed by the laying on of wreaths, the sounding of "Reveille" and the Benediction.

On Saturday, Nov. 10, poppies will be sold, the proceeds of which will go to disabled veterans and their dependents of World Wars I and II.

Plans are also being made to hold a Poppy dance in the Canadian Legion Hall, on Monday, November 12, for Legion members and their friends, proceeds to augment Poppy Day sales.

Monday, November 12, has officially been declared a holiday and all civic, provincial and dominion government offices will remain closed all day. Housewives are reminded to do their shopping before the week-end, as retail and wholesale houses will also remain closed.

The Provincial Government Liquor stores do not do a rushing business between now and Saturday night, as they too will not reopen their doors until Tuesday morning.

The B.C.-Yukon Division had reached its minimum quota of $70,000, 600 early this week and had adopted a new mark of $100,000,000 as its objective. If the local unit is to bear its share of this new quota it means that it should subscribe $1,300,000. This would give it approximately 125 per cent of its original quota.

Actually during the past several years this area had eventually finished with about 120 per cent of its quota.

Locally it has been the city which has been holding back the unit as a whole. With a quota of $600,000 the city on Wednesday only had 82.4 per cent or $494,300. This is due to the fact that a large number of city persons simply have not bought. On the other hand, Penticton and Vernon have both passed their objectives and are bowling merrily along to higher figures.

So concerned is the committee about the city situation, that four of its members have agreed that, should the city reach its objective, they will purchase for it a "Victory penset". This penset is unique and rather beautiful. It is something made especially to commemorate notable achievements in the current war, and is a symbol of the city's share in the victory.

These pensets cannot be purchased in the open market and are limited in number. The cost is $50 and four members of the local committee have agreed that, if the City of Kelowna reaches its objective, they will purchase the set for the city.

Locally, East and South Kelowna are leading the parade with $86,200, or 120.2 per cent of their quota. Following closely are Ellison with $115,000, Rutland with $108,000, Westbank with $107,500, Westbank and Peachland, which have in other loans been a slight headache, this time have shown what they can do. Peachland has $105,000 and expects to go over the top today.

REMEMBER

DO YOU know why the Poppy is the symbol of this particular occasion? It's because poppies grow in great profusion in France and Germany... they grow in and around thousands of white crosses that mark the graves... they grow where once men fought... they grow red—blood red.

There are other men who fought in Flanders whose names are not on any of those white crosses. No, their names are on white hospital beds and on little baskets with wheels and on wheel-chairs and crutches. Those are the men to whom Poppy Day has the most significance, those men whose comrades' agony is stilled beneath the live poppies in Flanders, but whose own agony throbs with every move and with every tortured heartbeat. Poppy Day is for them.

Buy a Poppy. They have made them, made them for you, with tired fingers and unseeing eyes. To them every Poppy sold means something very real. They've done something for you — buy a Poppy for them

ON...

Saturday, November 10th

The entire proceeds realized on the sale of poppies will go for the rehabilitation of these men—every last cent of it.

Pyrotechnic Display In Support Of Ninth Victory Loan Campaign Brings Back Memories To Airmen

Various Assortments Of Pyrotechnics Used By R.C.A.F. Provide Entertainment for Local Residents—Flares and Rockets Were Condemned Stock and Unfit for Further Use—Maj.-Gen. Keller Asks for Full Support in Ninth Victory Loan

RESIDENTS of Kelowna were treated to the biggest fireworks display ever witnessed in this part of the Okanagan Valley last Saturday night. But as scores of civilians gazed in astonishment at the various assortments of pyrotechnics used by the R.C.A.F., to many of the ex-servicemen who were present, it brought back memories of active combat duty overseas.

The great display was provided by the R.C.A.F. munitions depot at Kamloops and consisted of military stores that were unfit for further use. Hundreds of people crowded around the foot of Bernard Avenue an hour before the display started, which was arranged by the publicity committee of the Ninth Victory Loan in support of the current bond drive. During the course of the display, Major-General R. F. L. Keller, C.B.E., spoke in support of the Victory Campaign, and urged the public to purchase bonds to the fullest extent.

To many who witnessed the exhibition, it was another fireworks display, but to ex-servicemen of this war, especially members of the R.C.A.F., who were on operational duty overseas, they fully understood what the various types of pyrotechnics were used for.

That is why the show had a deeper meaning for servicemen, especially in view of the fact that the weapons of war have to be used to encourage citizens to purchase bonds to insure a complete victory on the home front. That is why many veterans went home with a feeling of thankfulness that the war is over and that they, too, can now readjust themselves to civilian life again.

It probably would have been better to have had a running commentary to explain the types of pyrotechnics used in this war. For instance, very few people knew that the smoke flare was used by the R.C.A.F. to designate a danger area of an airport or to denote to pilots coming in to land, that the runway in use was being changed. And then there were the "signal distress marine" flares that were used by airmen who were forced down on the sea after their aircraft became disabled.

Distress Signals

Few civilians knew that the Very Cartridges were used by airmen in distress, or that they were set off by a pistol when challenged by ground defences for the "colors of the day." (There are about a dozen different types of colors in the Very Cartridges.)

To some of the ex-airmen present, the firing of the Very pistol reminded them of the times when "Gerry" used to fly over English airmen in the darkness of the night and drop a "packet" on an Allied airfield. They would sometimes sneak through the Allied air defence net after the Nazi intelligence found out the "colors of the day" for that particular date. They would then join the circuit of an airfield just as the Allied planes would be returning from a bombing raid over the Reich. When most of the aircraft had landed, "Gerry" would drop a "packet," and all hell would break loose momentarily until the enemy plane was driven off.

There were many more memories that re-lived in the minds of ex-servicemen as they witnessed the fireworks—too many to enumerate here, but all agreed that the folks in the Okanagan could not have witnessed a more realistic display.

WINFIELD

The bingo games and social evening held in the Winfield Community Hall on Wednesday, Oct. 31, and which was sponsored by the local Hall Committee, drew a fair crowd. The proceeds, which amounted to approximately $45, are to be put to the sum already collected to build a new Memorial Hall in this district.

There will be a special Remembrance Day service in the United Church Sunday, Nov. 11. Rev. J. A. Petrie will officiate, and cordially invites returned men and women and others to attend.

Stanley has been a radio operator on a Swedish merchant ship, and has called at ports in Australia, Ceylon, India, Iran, Italy, Panama, West Indies, Sweden and England. He intends to take a holiday in the United Kingdom before returning home.

A number of high school students attended the Halloween party at the Rutland Community Hall on Friday, Nov. 2. Some of the residents of this district also attended the dance in the Oyama Community Hall the same evening.

Miss Donna Sherritt was hostess to a few friends on Thursday evening, it being the occasion of her eleventh birthday. Those present were: Nola Gibbons, Sheila Gibbons, Arlene, Arthur and Melvin Hall, Donald Arnold, Terry, Wayne and Arley Gibbons. The dining room was decorated in Halloween colors.

LOCAL OFFICER SITS ON COURT TRYING GERMANS

Lt.-Col. W. B. Bredin, of Kelowna, is the judge advocate of a special Canadian Military court, which is trying Maj.-Gen. Kurt Meyer, former commander of the German 12th S.S. Hitler Youth Division, involved in the shooting of 48 Canadian prisoners of war in the Caen area during the Battle of Normandy.

The German officer's trial will be heard by a special Canadian military court headed by Maj.-Gen. Harry Foster, former commander of the 1st Canadian Division, and convened by Maj.-Gen. Chris Vokes, commander of the Canadian Occupation Forces in Germany. The trial is to start November 28. It is estimated by Canadian war crimes investigators that the 12th S.S. Division killed at least 144 Canadian prisoners of war in 33 different incidents in Normandy.

MEAT COUPONS MUST BE GIVEN UP BY FARMERS

Added responsibilities have been placed on local Ration Boards with the renewal of meat rationing. The local Ration Boards in rural areas keep in close touch with farmers and farm slaughtering, and it is part of their volunteer duties to see that the proper coupons are surrendered. Coupons covering farmer's sales, or farm household consumption of meat and butter, and sales of preserves and butter, must be forwarded to the local Ration Boards. Special envelopes for primary producers, known as RB-61, are available for this purpose.

Farmers are required to send in "M" coupons to the local Ration Board for meat they consume, and meat they sell to farmer neighbors, at the rate of 4 lbs. per coupon. Farmers who slaughter meat need

Total Of $1,700 Will Be Awarded In Prizes—Contest Extended Another Month And Will Close Feb. 15—Scores Of Entries Already Received And Great Enthusiasm Is Shown By Sportsmen—Necessary To Take Out Membership Before Entering Derby

"BIGGER and better than ever"! That is the way officials of the Okanagan Lake Rainbow Trout Derby are summing up the second annual fish derby now in progress, which is being sponsored by the Fish and Game Clubs in Vernon, Kelowna and Penticton. Opened last June, the contest has been extended 15 days, and will officially close on February 15, 1946. A total of $1,700 is being awarded in prizes which will be presented to the winners at the annual banquet to be held in Kelowna shortly after the competition closes.

In spite of the fact the Derby Derby has already created something new in the way of a sporting event in the Okanagan Valley.

Before any fish entries can be received by the Association, it is necessary for sportsmen to become members in order to compete in the contests.

However, even though contestants buy a membership and don't qualify for any of the prizes for the "big ones", they still stand the chance of winning the major awards. For instance, the first of the grand prizes to be drawn from membership tickets is a five horse-power Johnson "Sea Horse" outboard motor valued at $100, while the second award is a cross fox fur, valued at $100. Seven other prizes also will be given from the membership ticket raffle. They are a lady's 17-jewel Tissot wrist watch, valued at $61.90; man's Gruen or Bulova wrist watch, $46.90; lady's wrist watch, $44.38; 35-piece chest of silver, $25; mantel mirror, $21.65; and a battery valued at $15.

Open to Other Lakes

Even though the contest reads Okanagan Lake Rainbow Trout Derby, it does not necessarily mean that all the fish have to be caught in the Okanagan Lake. The contest is also open to fishing in Osoyoos, Woods, Skaha, Kalamalka and Mabel Lakes. Official weighing stations are located at the following places: Oliver, Penticton, Summerland, Peachland, Westbank, Kelowna, Woods Lake, Kalamalka Lake, Okanagan Centre, Vernon and Mabel Lake.

Derby officials are: President, J. B. Spurrier, Kelowna; vice-president, Mark Hugo, Penticton; secretary-treasurer, Roy A. Longley, Kelowna; Derby statistician, A. J. Gayfer, and chairman of publicity, Charlie Horner.

The Derby itself is sponsored by the Fish and Game Clubs in Vernon, Kelowna and Penticton. The business men in these three cities and also Oliver, Peachland and Summerland, are to be congratulated for stimulating interest in the Derby, and also for donating prizes to the value of $1,700.

Prizes will be awarded for the twenty-four largest trout entered in the Derby. Top prize is an elder-down sleeping robe with a value of $50. Second prize is a $40 auto paint job, while a Gladstone bag, with a value of $35, will be given as third prize. All of the other 21 prizes are useful gifts in any local home.

Prize of the month values range around $10 each. For the month of June, a five-inch trolling reel will be given, while the lucky individual catching the largest fish in July will receive fishing tackle. Other monthly prizes include War Savings Stamps, War Savings Certificates, merchandise and a photo

The accompanying map on this page shows the whole of South Okanagan district where the "big ones" are caught. For the convenience of ardent anglers, "X" marks the spot where the various weighing stations are located in the Valley. The map also shows the roads that lead to the lakes, and unless one wants to journey to the higher regions, all the bodies of water can be reached easily by motor car.

1. Location of a permanent and qualified fish culturist for the interior areas.

Fish Official Fears Kokanee Run Is Being Seriously Depleted

Says Some Action Must Be Taken To Protect Fish In spawning beaches would be only six feet in the water.

An investigation into the Kokanee situation on district lakes has been recently conducted by Fish Warden J. Robinson. After having thoroughly covered about one-fourth of Okanagan Lake beaches, including Carr's Landing, Ewing's Landing, the North Arm and adjacent points, he states he is convinced the Kokanee are being depleted.

Some action must be taken to protect these fish, he declared. Thorlakson Bros. have taken a quantity of Kokanee this fall. Any further commercial fishing would be disastrous.

Further Protection

The officials of the Vernon and District Fish, Game and Forest Protective Association state further protection must be given these fish. It has been suggested that a fishing season for ten days from the start of the run would conserve the Kokanee.

At the beginning of the run, it is estimated there are five males to one female. Later the sexes are more evenly divided, hence early fishing would not do the damage that end-run fishing would do.

If the season were curtailed, freedom of end of run to spawn would help.

The proposed lowering of Okanagan Lake two feet would mean that Kokanee fishing would have to be stopped entirely, as most of their spawning grounds would be exposed.

The Osoyoos is a legendary monster inhabiting Okanagan Lake, which has been prominent in local Indian folk lore and which many respectable citizens avow has been seen frequently in recent years, disappearing himself (?) in the blue waters of Okanagan Lake.

Scores Of Lake Chains Make Up For Lack Of Rivers In Valley

Few Places on Continent Have Combination Of Hunting
And Fishing

The Interior of British Columbia is the sportsman's paradise of Western Canada. There are few parts on the North American continent today that have a combination of both hunting and fishing in the midst of the most picturesque scenery in the world.

Of course, the largest lake in the Valley is Lake Okanagan, which extends from a few miles north of Vernon, to almost the United States border. The peculiar thing about this area, however, is that there are very few rivers, but, of course, this is offset by the scores of small lakes, and lake chains, which dot the entire country. Take for instance, in Kelowna district, there must be about 17 or 18 small lakes which form a chain, and in all these small bodies of water fishing is good. The Okanagan Valley probably attracts more American tourists than any other place in British Columbia, and very few go away disappointed.

Many sportsmen contend, however, that the "big ones" are still to be caught in Okanagan Lake, and many have proved this by their entries received so far in the Derby. In spite of the fact the shooting season is in full swing, interest in the fish contest has not slackened by any degree, and there is a long way to go before the entries close. So don't put away that fishing tackle and rod just because the leaves are turning yellow and the weather is getting cooler. The fish are just starting to bite!

DERBY ASSOC. HAS $1,219.69 CASH IN BANK

According to the 1944-45 financial statement of the Okanagan Lake Rainbow Trout Derby, the association has a cash balance of $1,219.69 in the bank.

Disbursements during the past year amounted to $662.46. The itemized receipts as shown in the financial statement are as follows: Kelowna Ticket Sales, $418; Penticton Ticket Sales, $250.40; Vernon Ticket Sales, $1,002; Interest, Dominion of Canada Bond, $1.75; Donations for prizes (bond and rowboat), $210.

Disbursements are as follows: Rev. Stamps, postage, pins, etc., $8.55; freight and express, $25.64; advertising and tickets, $241.43; telegrams and telephones, $33.90; equipment (scales, etc.), $15.37; insurance (prizes), $10; stationery, $9; traveling expense, $9.20; rowboat, $126.56; Dominion of Canada Bond, $100; stenographers, $21.90; banquet loss, $55.41; Kelowna loss ticket sales, $5.

Okanagan Derby

Some Of The "Big Ones" Taken From Lake Okanagan

The above picture lay-out shows some of the "Big Ones" which have been caught in Lake Okanagan and surrounding waters. To prove this, the top picture shows a day's catch in Lake Okanagan, while reading left to right shows C. T. Redstone, of Peachland with a "beauty" weighing 15 pounds, seven ounces. Jack Lloyd himself, the inventor of the notorious "Gang Troll", is shown with a nice catch on his shoulders, while one of Okanagan's fisherettes is displaying her results of a day's outing. Lower left shows a ten pounder caught in Mabel Lake, while centre shows eighteen fish averaging about three and a half to four pounds each. Extreme right is "winter fishing", showing the contrast between the "Little Feller", and the "Big One", and at the bottom of the layout, Douglas Rankin is displaying a 15 pounder caught in Okanagan Lake.

DERBY HELPS CONSERVATION

We hear the odd objection to fish contests from sportsmen contending that the fisherman who is true to his ideals needs no prize other than the sport as an inducement to go after the "big ones".

There is, of course, much truth in this contention, but the executive wants to compete knows that his of the Fish Derby would like to assure every so thinking fisherman that the percentage of fishing enthusiasts who would purposely follow this sport for such trivial reward is very small. Also fishermen sportsmanship.—Contributed.

First Annual Banquet

The first annual banquet of the Okanagan Lake Rainbow Trout Derby was held last May in Vernon, and the above picture shows a small section of the crowd. Insert shows guests at the head table, reading left to right: Hon. R. L. Maitland, Attorney-General of B.C.; Dr. E. W. Frowse, chairman of the banquet; Hon. K. C. MacDonald, Mrs. Maitland, Mrs. Dorothy Thompson, "Smiling" Frank Becker, and M. Boklage. Mrs. Thompson topped the fisherette section in last year's contest, while Mr. Boklage led the largest trout section. Frank Becker is responsible for organizing the original trout derby in the Okanagan Valley, and a great deal of credit is due to him as the result of his hard working efforts.

Expect Okanagan Lake Fishing To Improve With Colder Weather

Majority Of Entries In Derby Received From Southern Part Of Valley

So far this season by far the greatest percentage of entries in the Okanagan Lake Rainbow Trout Derby have come from the southern part of the Okanagan Valley. At the present time Kelowna anglers are leading in numbers with a good showing in weight of fish caught. A total of 51 entries have been made to date.

The largest fish caught in Okanagan Lake during June was registered by C. Nicholl, of Penticton.
In July, Herbert Keating, of Peach-land, turned in a report on a 15 pound, half ounce prize, which so far leads all entries for weight.

August was the best month for entries with 21 on the books. The fish during that month ranged from 14 pounds, eight ounces, to five pounds, one ounce. George Stoll, of Summerland, is credited with the top entry.

The number of catches slackened off in September. C. M. Horner, of Kelowna, recording a 14 pound, three ounce top liner. There were only six others.

The largest fish in the fisherette section to date has been caught by Mrs. C. M. Horner, when she landed a beauty weighing 12 pounds, 12 ounces.

Run Started

The Derby fishing for Kokanee in Woods Lake ended on October 15, and just prior to the closing of fishing in that lake, considerable interest was shown by anglers in view of the fact the Kokanee started to run.

Frank Becker, the Vernon representative to the Derby Association, states that it is anticipated there will be greater entries from the North end of the lake from now on.
As soon as the Kokanee run is ended, the big fish will start looking around for feed and then the angler's lures will regain their attraction. Also now that the colder weather is here, the fish will start coming up from the bottom of the lakes.
There is still almost four months to go before the competition closes, so when the big fish start biting steadily, the interest should climb.

POOR POSTURE BAD FOR HEALTH

Poor posture is ugly, fatiguing and damaging to the health, Dr. Jerome S. Peterson, of the New York City Department of Health, says, in an article in a recent issue of Hygeia, the health magazine of the American Medical Association.

"Poor health, depressed mental attitude and bad posture seem to go together," Dr. Peterson says. "Bad posture will throw the body out of alignment and may do serious damage to the internal organs as a result of unnatural compression."

The formula for improving the posture is: "Stand correctly; stand as tall as possible without rising on your toes. Get your feet a few inches apart and point your toes forward. Hold your head up, bring your chin in. Your chest should be up. The lower abdomen should be in and flat, but don't strain yourself and don't become stiff. Let your hands hang loosely at your sides. Be conscious of your posture, but try to be relaxed at the same time."

BIBLE SOCIETY SOLICITS FUNDS TO EXTEND WORK

An appeal is now being made by the Kelowna branch of the British and Foreign Bible Society for the extension of the work of publishing and distributing the Bible throughout the world. In an appeal to Kelowna residents last year, a total of $394.69 was collected, and the city stood third highest in the province.

The main object of the Society is to provide the Scriptures for the peoples of the world in their mother tongues and today they are being read in 1,000 languages, of which the Society has been responsible for 701 translations. During the war it distributed no less than 640,000 New Testaments among members of the Canadian Armed Forces and 100 Bibles and 200 New Testaments were sent to prisoners of war.

Contributions to the fund may be made through the local churches or handed to A. J. Pritchard, president of the local branch, W. G. Draper, secretary, L. F. Walrod, treasurer, Dr. R. H. G. McKee, C. L. Dalton, J. F. Fumerton.

More About 2 UNIT WILL REACH

In the Eighth Loan. In fourteen days $1,289,646,250 had been subscribed of the minimum objective of $1,500,000,000. At the same period in the last loan the amount stood at $974,276,400. There is little doubt that a billion-five will be reached and it is probable that the amount at the end of the loan will reach about $1,500,000,000.

Bull's Statement
C. R. Bull, chairman of the Kelowna and District War Finance Committee, commenting on the local situation on Wednesday, said: "There is no doubt that we will reach our minimum objective. I think we can take that for granted. We should reach it on Thursday. But is that enough?"

"We should remember that this is the last Victory Loan and that we will not again have an opportunity to subscribe to Victory Loans. We should remember, too, that our unit is dragging behind nearly every other section of the province. We are certainly the province as a whole and certainly the other Okanagan units are showing us clean pairs of heels."

"That does not worry us, as long as we do as good a job as we are capable. In this unit we have the unfortunate habit of leaving many subscriptions until the last day or so and this is not the fault of the committee. It is the fault of the people themselves. Actually we were during the past three or four campaigns, done about thirty per cent of our total in the last three days."

"I only hope that this happens again. If so, it will give a standing about approximately the same as the province and the other communities near us. We usually end the campaign with about 120 per cent of our minimum objective. We should do this again. Never before was the need for money so great and never before was the objective—the rehabilitation of our service personnel—so worthy. We just can't afford to fail."

"I would point out that this area's record in past loans has been a splendid one. We have never failed to do our job well. We are coming to the end. We can't afford to fail in this loan and spoil our record."

"The record rests entirely in the hands of the people of Kelowna and its rural area. If they are content to coast through and finish this most important loan in a poor manner, well that is their privilege. However, if we are content to coast, we are in a jolly well should be to show our returned service people that we are behind them, the best thing to do is to dig down and buy more Victory Bonds to the limit we are allowed. To hold its own with other communities in the province, the Central Okanagan unit must subscribe about 120 per cent of its objective."

HIGH SPOTS

of Kelowna High School Life

Here, "better late than never," is your roving High School reporter to bring you up to date with the school news. This is the first opportunity that Kelowna High School has had, since the advent of peace, to express itself in print. For this reason it would seem appropriate to make a report of our wartime activities.

The head of the list is the buying of War Savings Stamps and Victory Bonds. Each year a quota of $1,000 was set as the War Savings objective, and each year the students responded with a will to this challenge of their ability to help win the war. Some years this quota proved a little too high and the objective was not reached. However, it was never far away. Thus it is that up-to-date we have announced, by the buying of War Savings Stamps, the total of $3,709.

During the war years we all did what we could to help ease the critical shortage of labor. Just ask some High School girl or boy how they spent their summer "vacations." You would find that they can still relate amusing incidents that occurred while they were working those long hours in a packing house, cannery and orchard. From the earnings of these summer jobs, a total of $1,650 was purchased in War Bonds, besides the War Savings total.

The Prisoner of War Fund, the Red Cross, Junior and Senior Branches, and the Mrs. Hamber Fund, were only a few of the worthy causes for which the school raised money. This was done in many ways—a Penny Fair, dancing lessons, hot dog and candy sales, various competitions, etc. Through these efforts $598.40 was realized.

Thus the grand total raised by Kelowna High School as its contribution to victory is $8,047.40.

We must not forget the various Cadet Corps—Navy, Army and Air Force, who have trained vigorously for the past five years. From their ranks have come our sailors, soldiers and airmen. Many of these gave their lives so that we might enjoy freedom in every sense of the word.

Kelowna High is ever grateful to these gallant heroes. In 1941 a Girl Cadet Corps was organized and this proved very popular. Last year 60% of the profits from the High School plays were given to the Red Cross. This year, however, this profit was used to buy uniforms for the Army Cadets.

In our brief summary we have not mentioned the salvage and clothing drives, nor the work done by the girls in Red Cross. With all this behind us we can now plan for an active and interesting year — IN PEACE!—Dot Whitman.

MUSIC RECITAL MONDAY DRAWS MUCH INTEREST

Keen interest is being shown in the joint musical recital to be given by Marie Rodker and Lloyd Powell in the Kelowna Junior High School, on Monday, November 12.

Doors of the school will open at 7.45 as no seats are reserved. Proceeds of the recital will go to the local branch of the Red Cross Society, and the concert is being sponsored by the Kelowna Listening Group and the B.C. Music Teachers' Federation.

FINED $300 ON LIQUOR COUNT

Roy Oliver, of Kelowna, was fined $300 by Magistrate T. F. McWilliams in police court last Saturday when he was convicted of supplying intoxicating liquor to a minor. John McDowell, also of Kelowna, was fined $25 for being intoxicated. He was picked up by city police in front of the Post Office last Friday afternoon and after questioning, he revealed that he had obtained the liquor from Oliver.

In the meantime, Jim fixed up some smart, oversized frames for our prints, and did a re-painting job on the walls. Then a Venetian blind to cover both windows. "Hey! It begins to look like something around here!" he said, one day.

ASSISTANT CITY ASSESSOR HIRED

Application of Major George Meckling, of Vancouver, for the position of assistant assessor in the city office, was accepted by the local Council at its regular meeting Monday night.

Meckling, who rose from a private to the rank of major in this war, is a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan, and has an accountant's degree. He will be placed on four months' probation and will assist the city staff in getting this year's assessment ready.

Lunch room on Nov. 15, to supply the children with a hot drink at noon hour during the cold weather. A stove with oil burner and sink has been installed, and most of the other equipment except cups has been bought. The children will be asked to supply their own cups for the moment until the Board is able to obtain them. A delegation from the P.T.A. met the School Board at their meeting last Tuesday evening, with an offer to help in the lunch room in any way they could. The offer was gladly accepted by the Board. The chairman, A. J. Chidley, thanked them and said the Board was glad of any suggestions for the betterment of the pupils at the school. The school, with 125 pupils, is running to capacity.

Two more Peachland men arrived home last week, travelling on the Queen Elizabeth. Cpl. T. Lt.-Col. G. C. Oswald, Veterans' Officer under the Department of Labor, with headquarters in Kelowna, was at the Legion Hall Friday afternoon of last week, to advise returned men on rehabilitation problems. Sportsmen Of Penticton District Taste Field And Forest Products At Annual Big Game Banquet

No Shortage Of Game Meat As Members Take Part In Annual Meeting—Early Member Of Interior Fish And Game Association Given Life Membership—Interesting Films Shown Of Wild Life In British Columbia—Ticket Sales Help Boost Okanagan Fish Derby

A FEAST of the products of British Columbia's forest and field was placed before those attending the 14th annual big game dinner held by the Penticton and District Fish, Game and Forest Protective Association last Thursday night. The gathering well filled both the hall for the dinner and crowded the upper hall for the social and entertainment program later. Plates of moose meat, elk and venison were placed before the guests, the game being donations from various sportsmen of the area. There was no shortage of game meat of either of the three varieties.

Feature of the entertainment program was the showing of natural color films by G. L. Pop, of Vancouver, coupled with short addresses by sportsmen and others throughout the region surrounding Penticton.

One of the highlights was a presentation made to Gordon Toombs, president of the Interior Fish and Game organization, and practically founder of the present Penticton one, which he headed for fourteen years. He has now been head of the Interior body for five years.

In making this presentation, Reeve R. J. McDougall said, "Gordon Toombs has come a long distance in the past 15 years, since he took over the old Rod and Gun Club, then a struggling little organization, with few members. The Reeve spoke of the manner in which Gordon Toombs had gone up and down the street, selling memberships—and the idea and ideal of conservation, until eventually a membership of 300 emerged. Mr. McDougall also spoke, appreciatively of the life membership that had been accorded himself in the association. He then conferred an honorary life membership upon Mr. Toombs, the inscription on the folder bearing the membership citing the long and faithful service the past-president had given the organization.

Foster Protection
"Just a word in general about the club," said Mr. McDougall. "It is easy to pay the one dollar membership; but there is a lot more to it than that. More could do well in following the example set by the past president in being active in the club. It is up to all of us to foster protection of the woods, wild life and fish. Thus this province would be looked upon as a place of great attraction to those from distant places, and also to the young people of this province."

He then presented Mr. Toombs with a leather travelling bag, as a practical token of the esteem the club feels for him.
Replying to the presentation address, Mr. Toombs said, "I merely tried to do my best; to build up the organization, to assist in the protection of forest and wild life." He paid tribute to the B.C. Game Commission, to the game wardens, and especially to the members of the executive of the sports body.
"I will stay with the Association as long as I can do my part toward the development and progress of sport and conservation," he concluded.

Several films were shown by Mr. Pop, these being various hunting and fishing trips he had made. In some of these he showed scenes of the deep snows encountered in some of the expeditions, and the manner in which the members of parties had had to overcome difficulties.
Competent guides could do a great deal toward opening up some of the back country, and especially toward the development of some of the hunting country on the higher levels, where the grizzly makes its home. Caches of food conveyed into the higher country when conditions are favorable would render the work of a trip much easier, and also would provide a "safety store" in case of need.

Hunt Grizzly Bears
One trip portrayed on the screen in the natural color film showed members of a party hunting grizzly right in the heart of the higher-level "snow-line" country, where snow exists for at least a greater part of the year. In another it showed members of a party making a special type big-game hunt, in which they conveyed their equipment, and also the products of the chase.
In still others, Mr. Pop illustrated examples of sport-fishing, mostly of interior lakes; in the North Thompson country and elsewhere in the more remote spots. The fish shown being caught in these are of the Kamloops variety, some specimens measuring about two feet in length, and others over the 12 inches. As the fish were fat-looking it was evident they were quite weighty.

Some interesting scenes, notably of the country around Ennis and Lake Louise, and also Moraine Lake, were shown, together with some of the Columbia Ice Fields and the country between that and Jasper.
Commenting throughout the showing of the films, Mr. Pop supported what Mr. Seeley had said regarding guides, and also emphasized the necessity of encouraging the true sportsman in place of the game-hoy who is only out for meat. In the showing of the films of a herd of elk, for instance, Mr. Pop said that the true hunter would go after the old bulls, which would leave the young bulls to infuse new life-blood into herds, thus maintaining the strain at its peak. The careless or purely meat-hunter would often kill off the younger bulls, thus weakening the strain.

The necessity of further conservation measures, and of even greater developments to still further improve big-game conditions, were stressed by the Vancouver man. Some of the scenes were of Mr. Pop's daughter, who is shortly being married at Vancouver, while others were of a bear-hunt that Miss Pop made just a few months ago.
Co-Operation Necessary
In his introductory remarks, Mark Hugo, president of the Penticton Club, stressed the necessity of close co-operation and continued efforts on the part of members. At the same time he paid tribute to the work of his executive, making particular mention of the work done by Cliff

1885 SIXTY YEARS OF PROGRESS 1945

A Dream Come True

When, on November 7, 1885, the last spike was driven linking the rails of the Canadian Pacific Railway, developments only dreamed of that day were to follow.

Soon ships flying the red and white Canadian Pacific house flag were plying the Pacific... then the Atlantic. There followed a chain of hotels... resorts and lodges... coastal and inland steamships... express and telegraph services—the whole forming an all-Canadian system stretching more than half way round the world.

In 1939, this vast system was dedicated to the winning of the war. Since then the Company's rail lines alone have handled more than 128 billion ton miles of freight—and 11 billion passenger miles. All ocean steamships have been on active service—many have gone down fighting.

Now the Canadian Pacific faces the future. Plans have been completed for the construction of new, improved locomotives and coaches... sleeping cars... parlour cars... diners; for the renovation of stations and hotels; and for the building of a new fleet of ocean vessels.

In a world at peace the Canadian Pacific will do its part in providing modern, efficient transportation by land and sea.

BACKACHE
The Plague of Outdoor Men

The outdoor man, whether he be farmer, truck driver, or railway operator, is often subject to backache.
This may be the result of exposure to cold and dampness or the result of strain from the jolting and bumping of the vehicle he rides.

To many people, women as well as men, it would be great to be free of backache — one of the most common and annoying of ailments. And here is how you may be relieved of backache and other symptoms of poisons in the blood.

The treatment suggested is Dr.
Chase's Kidney Liver Pills. By reason of their stimulating action on both the liver and kidneys, you have two chances to one of getting relief from your backache by using Dr.
Chase's Pills. The torpid liver is aroused to action, the kidneys are stimulated and consequently these organs help to purify the blood of the poisonous impurities which bring pains and aches and tired feelings.

Keep regular and keep well by using Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills.

Pretty Ceremony

A wedding of interest locally took place on Thursday afternoon, October 18, at 2:30 o'clock, in Zion
United Church, Armstrong. Gladoli and chrysanthemums made a lovely setting for the quiet ceremony which united Violet Edna Carlson and Walter Douglas Dockstader, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Dockstader. Rev.
R. J. Love officiated.

Entering the church on the arm of a friend, R. J. Murray, who gave her in marriage, the bride wore a gown of white chiffon sheer with sweetheart neckline and trimming of sequins. A veil in train was held by a coronet and her bouquet was who was her sister's bridesmaid, chose a frock of pink sheer and carried a bouquet of bronze chryssanthemums.

a honeymoon in the South Okanagan

CEREMONY AT UNITED CHURCH

Elaine Baum Weds Gnr. Fuller
On Sunday At First United Church In Pretty Ceremony

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the First United Church on Sunday afternoon, November 4, at 3:30 o'clock, when Dr. M. W. Lees united in marriage Elaine Leone, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
W. L. Baum, of this city, to Gunner Ivan Kitchener Fuller, R.C.A., only son of R. J. Fuller, and the late Mrs.
Fuller, of Pickering, Ontario.

The attractive brunette bride entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave his daughter in marriage. She chose for the occasion a floor length white net gown and a finger tip embroidered net veil, held in place by a sweetheart cap, while her bouquet of red roses and white heather added a charming touch of color to her ensemble.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Philip Reimche, sister of the bride, wore a gown of floor length pink sheer and matching headpiece. Her shower bouquet was of yellow carnations and fern.

The two bridesmaids, the Misses Joyce Kasey and Nelsie Bell, looked charming in similar gowns of blue and pink net with their matching sweetheart caps. They carried bouquets of pink carnations and maiden hair fern.

Jack Ritch was the groomsman and the ushers were Philip Reim-che and Reginald Merriam.

During the signing of the register,
Miss Clara Reimche sang "Because".
Later a small reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 210 Park Avenue, where the bridal party was assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. Baum, who chose for the occasion a black two-piece afternoon dress and she wore a corsage of white gardenias.

N. Swerdiger proposed a toast to the bride couple to which the groom responded in a few well chosen words.

For their honeymoon to Penticton the bride changed into a green two-piece wool dress and a moss green topcoat with red fox collar and her accessories were of brown.

Upon their return, Gunner and Mrs. Fuller will leave for the east where they will reside.

Appreciation, Peachland!

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to the people of Peachland for their splendid support in the recent National Clothing Drive, and wish to thank the Committee and the Cadets for collecting the used clothes.

The ladies of the Red Cross Society and the Women's Institute have also done very commendable work in making jam for the people of Britain, having made over 2,300 pounds.

I now appeal to all residents of the District to support the Ninth Victory Loan Drive to the fullest extent, and help Canada put it over the top.

A. J. CHIDLEY,
Reeve of Peachland.

How to master the art of coffee making

There is nothing served at your table that brings as much enjoyment as such a low cost as a cup of good coffee. Yet how many of us devote the same careful attention to the brewing of that coffee as is given to the preparation of other foods? Making a cup of good coffee is really an art, but a simple art in which anyone can become adept. There are about five rules that have become second nature to me in brewing coffee at home. Perhaps it's their very simplicity that spells success... what would you say?

1. First and foremost, I select the proper grind for the type of coffee maker I use in brewing the coffee. This, of course, eliminates my having to have vacuum-packed coffee around. It has been my experience that having already-ground coffee put through the grinder a second time too often results in loss of flavor and aroma of the coffee. And the brew made from twice-ground coffee is usually cloudy and bitter. (Note: Many of you, I know, prefer whole-bean coffee which is ground right at the grocer at the time of purchase. A delicious brew can be obtained by this method if you remember that just one grinding is sufficient.)

2. I MEASURE both coffee and freshly boiling water accurately. I know it is important to use the same exact proportions every time coffee is made to be sure it will always taste the same. A good rule of thumb for coffee that is rich in flavor, as well as strength, is one heaping tablespoon (or two level tablespoons) of coffee to each 6-oz. cup, or ¼ standard measuring cup, of freshly boiling water. However, personal taste does vary and, in the final analysis, you have to determine the strength you prefer and always use the same proportions.

3. I TIME my coffee-making carefully. The coffee should be in contact with the water for a definite length of time, depending on the type and capacity of your coffee-maker, as well as the strength of beverage desired. After the correct timing has been determined I stick to it; because I know that otherwise results will not be uniform.

4. I make it a point to SERVE coffee SOON after it is made. Because cool coffee cannot be reheated without injuring its flavor. (Bear in mind, coffee that is overcooked, or boiled, loses its aromatic substances.)

5. I CLEAN the coffee-maker daily. Coffee oils have a tendency to cling to the inner surfaces of utensils and eventually impart an undesirable flavor to the coffee brew.

And that's all there is to it. Over a period of time I have developed my own "trade secrets". I have found, for instance, that it is best to purchase coffee in an amount that can be used within a week. Because once the coffee is ground exposure to the air causes it to begin to lose freshness.

As for cleaning, besides the soapy washing each day and the scalding with hot water, I keep the coffee pot "sweet" by a more thorough cleaning at least twice a month. A hot soda bath is my method. Too, when the coffee-maker is put in the cupboard between meals, I leave the cover off. This gives it a good chance to air.

THE millions of folks who enjoy malty-rich, delicious Grape-Nuts every day, now find they also help save meat coupons. Every tempting serving gives you a generous amount of protein—a kind of protein that replaces meat better than many other meat substitutes. Four heaping teaspoons of Grape-Nuts, with milk, give you more protein, calcium, phosphorus, iron and carbohydrates than a 4-slice serving of bacon! Enjoy good-to-eat "chewy", easy-to-digest Grape-Nuts often.
